

Minerals of Wisconsin

PHENAKITE

PHENAKITE is a rare beryllium silicate found in granites near Wausau, Wisconsin. To learn more, visit WisconsinGeologicalSurvey.org.

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

Pete Rodewald, photographer

Wisconsin Geological and Natural History Survey

3817 Mineral Point Rd., Madison, WI 53705 • WisconsinGeologicalSurvey.org • 608-263-7389
University of Wisconsin–Extension

Minerals of Wisconsin .....
GALENA

GALENA, Wisconsin's state mineral, has been mined in Wisconsin since the 1600s. To learn more, visit WisconsinGeologicalSurvey.org.

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

Pete Rodewald, photographer

Wisconsin Geological and Natural History Survey

3817 Mineral Point Rd., Madison, WI 53705 • WisconsinGeologicalSurvey.org • 608-263-7389
University of Wisconsin–Extension

Minerals of Wisconsin

CHALCOCITE

CHALCOCITE crystals coated with iridescent bornite. This was the main copper ore mineral at the Flambeau Mine in Ladysmith, Wisconsin. To learn more, visit WisconsinGeologicalSurvey.org.

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

Pete Rodewald, photographer

Wisconsin Geological and Natural History Survey

3817 Mineral Point Rd., Madison, WI 53705 • WisconsinGeologicalSurvey.org • 608-263-7389
University of Wisconsin–Extension

Minerals of Wisconsin
MARCASITE

MARCASITE, an iron sulfide, in crystals from Ordovician limestone near Oshkosh, Wisconsin. To learn more, visit WisconsinGeologicalSurvey.org.

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

Pete Rodewald, photographer

Wisconsin Geological and Natural History Survey

3817 Mineral Point Rd., Madison, WI 53705 • WisconsinGeologicalSurvey.org • 608-263-7389
University of Wisconsin–Extension